Expiry of Voluntary Escrow Restrictions

Pursuant to the agreement relating to the acquisition of the Rapley Wilkinson business by Nomad Building Solutions Limited (Nomad), the 5,600,000 ordinary shares issued by Nomad to the vendor as part consideration for the acquisition were subject to voluntary escrow.

Nomad advises that the voluntary escrow period in respect of 2,800,000 of those shares (representing approximately 2.1% of the shares on issue) expired on 27 February 2009. The voluntary escrow period for the remaining 2,800,000 shares is to expire on the earlier of 1 March 2010 or 2 days after the Company publishes its financial report for the half-year ended 31 December 2009.
